Defendant City of Oakland filed its proposal to close out 756 uninvestigated alleged cases of misconduct on October 4, 2006. The Court's Order dated October 11, 2006 approved the City's proposal and further required that the defendant City of Oakland and its police department enter into the Internal Personnel Assessment System ("i-PAS") no later than March 31, 2007 the relevant data on all of the 756 uninvestigated IAD complaints that were dated within the thirty months prior to October 11, 2006. The Order also required that the same information be entered into the Personnel Assessment System ("PAS") no later than three months after the final implementation of PAS.

Defendant proposes that Deputy Chief Jeff Israel be the person responsible for these tasks.
